All his children were here in attendance at the funeral which was held on Monday, of this week, the interment being in the South Dunkard church.

A. J. MOORE DISCHARGED.

United States Commissioner Rules That There Was "No Probable Cause for A :tion."

A. J. Moore, charged with having fraudently secured the -um of $660 from Postmaster Thompson at Uraig, in January last, by representing himse f to be a postoffice inspector, succeeded in showing to the satisfaction of he U.S. Commissioner at Cre-ton, Iowa, on Thursday of last week, 24th uit. that he is an innocent an : unjustly accused man, notwithstanding the fact that six unimpeachable witnesses from Craig positively identified the accused man; these were:

E G. Cook, superintendent of Craig schools, who was in the postallice at Craig on the date and -aw whom he thought was Moore, apparently inspecting the books.

Thos J. Redmon, traveling salesman, residing at Craig, saw whom he thought was A. J. Moore in the postoffice at Craig on January 16th, behind the railing looking over the books Identified the defendant as the man he saw there. Saw the man again in June at Villisca. Iowa, and identified him as the same

Preston Wise, retired farmer, living at Craig, one of the postmaster's bondsmen, was in the postoffice at, Craig on have made no appeal for help, but they January 16th and saw whom he thought was the defendant apparently checking up the office. Witness supposed the man to be an inspector and looked at him closely.

Henry F. Guilliams, a barber of Craig, formerly clerk in the postoffice, was in the office about the middle of January and saw an alleged inspector working on the books; identified the defendant as the man. In the afternoon of the day, witness shaved the man. Witness saw the man again at Villisca about four weeks ago.

Albert Van Wormer, rural mail carrier at Craig, identified A. J. Moore as the man introduced to him by Mr. Thompson, postmaster, as Mr. Orland, postoffice inspector, in the postoffice at Craig, Mo., on January 16th, 1908. Witness saw the man again in Villisca, lows, on June 2cd, in the person of A.

Moore had a number of witnesses from various points in Nebraska to prove an alibi.

Commissioner Hanna in summing up the arguments of defense and prosecution sustained unconditionally that of Chas. L. Buis to Wm. H. Rice, ne the defense. He held that the evidence produced for the defense in proving the alibi was so complete and uninterrupted 1908: as to satisfy him of the innocence of Volney A Coston, et al to Hulthe defendant. He further stated that the proof established that the defendant was in Nebraska at the time the crime Wm P Hardman to Shannon was committed predominated and removed beyond all reasonable doubt the possibility of his identification as the man who appeared at the postoffice at Craig on the 16th day of January last, as being at all correct, and that the postmasters and other witnesses were certainly mistaken in their identity. The government does not seem to be satisfied with the commissioner's action, and they are inclined to take Moore before the grand jury.

5 YEARS OF SUCCESS

In Curing Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Diseases

I do not claim to make impossible cures, but each of my patients get the benefit of all that skill and science can do, and there are few cases that belong to my specialty that I cannot cure. My large practice and reputation have been built up by skillful work and the honest fulfillment of every promise.

During the ten years that I have been located in St.

Joseph ! have applied myself studiously to the practice of Joseph I have applied myself studiously to the practice of my specialty, giving my intlents the very best treatment that skillful science affords, making cares whenever I promise to, and restoring to perfect condition thousands who have been treated elsewhere without benefit. I have devoted myself exclusively to the treatment of Eye, Ear, Nose and Taroat Diseases for lifteen years, and have thus acquired a special knowledge which cannot be equalled by any physician who attempts to treat everything. If a case is curable, I can cure it, and while I do not claim to cure every case. I often have patients come to me after other doctors have declared them incurable, and my treatment has resulted in a complete cure. The reason of this is that most doctors are altogether analyses.

in a complete cure. The reason of this is that most doctors are altogether unable to intelligently treat Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Diseases, because they have had no opportunity of acquiring the special knowledge necessary to understand them thoroughly, and their treatment is often entirely misdirected. I employ no out-of-date medicines and use no painful methods. Consultation and examination free.

CRAIG AND VICINITY.

Interesting Events of a Local Character, Compiled From the Craig Leader of June 26.

-A thirty-foot bridge across a slough be ween A. Sharp's place and the Widow Wright's place, two and three-quarters of a mile from Craig, was carried out by high water recently.

-J. L. Hopkins, who for the past twenty six years has owned and occupied wenty-five acre fruit farm, four miles north of Craig, this year marketed at 25 cents per gallon 21s gallons of May Duke cherrics raised on seven trees, and has easily 70 galons in sight. Already these seven trees have brought in their owner $7.75 each, with the reasonable certainty that to this amount will be added $2.50 for each tree.

-Monday last Pearce shipped twenfy head of Durham grade steers, dehorned and all natives, to St. Joseph. They were bought of T. N. Miles, who had fed them four months. on corn and grass, and they weighed 1,146 pounds. Mr. Miles bought them in St. Joseph iast winter. They were all two-year-olds and a choice lot. Nothing finer has ever gone out of this market, perhaps, for breeding and condition, and but for the price of corn they would in two months more have been considered an event in the St. Joseph market. Mr. Miles sold at $6.35 or a total sum of $1.411.50, and cleaned up nearly $700 on the bunch.

—All the preliminary steps, except the presentation to the circuit court of the petition, have been taken toward the organization of "Little Tarkio Drainage District No.1," the territory of which adjoins this place upon the eastward and slightly upon the northward where the farm properties of Asa Sharp and Arch Sharp bound the town in the dispersion of published accordingly.

It is further ordered, that a copy here of be published according to law in The Holl rections indicated. The territory comprising ward where the farm properties of Asa Sharp rections indicated. The territory comprising the proposed district consists of 3,556.82 acres of which 1,900.55 acres, or a majority of 244.28 acres, has been actually subscribed. Every icre of the district, through which Little Tarkio flows for nearly four miles, is of exceeding richness and raises enormous crops of corn and forage crops, including alfalfa. Its only drawback is the tendency to be overstocked with water, not every year, but with greater frequency than is desirable.

-The only public observance of the Fourth of July in Holt county this year is the celebration at Craig, conducted by the Modern Woodmen. St. George camp of St. Joseph, and the camps of Mound City, Oregon, Fair fax, Skidmore, Corning and Rock Port will send uniformed teams to compete for the cash prize hung up by the home camp for the best drilled team attending the celebration. The Craig team is, of course, excluded from the contest, but will give an exhibition drill There will be orations by A. B. Duncan of St. Joseph and State Lecturer Rateliffe of the Woodmen. Competitions on log rolling and tugs of war will furnish sport, and $300 worth of fireworks will be worked off as soon a darkness follows the other amusements.
